Lydden 17June

Steve - 1st in Class 82.51s, 2nd in top 12 run off.

Motorsport News British Sprint Championship:

'Steve Broughton switched from radial to cross-ply tyres during the week. The suspension of his OMS was altered accordingly and he started the day feeling his way around. By run-off time he was confident enough to take second place and smash the 1600 class record.'

Curborough Westfield Weekend 24/25June

Steve - 2nd in class co-driving Peter Hayter's Westfield

Pembrey 8July

Steve - 1st in Class - 98.72s, 2nd in top 12 run off. Motorsport News report

Kim - Ladies FTD - 119.30s

Motorsport News British Sprint Championship:

Excerpt from the report for Saturday

'Championship sponsor Steve Broughton brought his OMS home second after a mighty struggle with Stewart Robb in the Pilbeam. Broughton's Suzuki powered machine was fantastic through the sweeping Pembrey corners and, despite a lack of outright top speed, just held off the Scot's challenge'

Pembrey 9July

Steve - 1st in Class - 43.39s, 2nd in top 12 run off - 42.71 seconds. Motorsport News report

Kim - Ladies FTD - 51.32s

Motorsport News British Sprint Championship:

Excerpt from the report for Sunday

'Partly to blame for Dawson's disappointment was Steve Broughton, who again put in a stirring drive in the tiny OMS. Broughton's commitment through the sweeping curves brought gasps from the drivers spectating at the paddock gate'
